

Brett Middendorf

Brett is Director of Client Relations at inQUEST.

Brett brings a tailored approach to client management and business development, and is an expert in helping clients integrate Contineo, inQUEST's unique D&I game, into their D&I strategy.

For five years, Brett led client management and business development activities as the Director of Certification & Training for a trade association. In that role, he gained extensive experience working with learning and development professionals for large corporations around the globe. Brett began his professional career as a commercial litigator at a large Chicago law firm before deciding to follow his passion for sales and account management.

When not working, Brett enjoys spending time with friends and family, his schnauzer mix Fritz, and dreaming about ways to live and work in Italy.

Brett graduated cum laude with a B.B.A. from Loyola University Chicago and obtained his J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law.

"D&I work is a must in today's corporate environment to cultivate productivity and innovation. I'm delighted to work with many first-time clients as they experience first-hand how inQUEST differs from the rest."
