

Suzanne Gooler

Suzanne is a Senior Partner at inQUEST.

With more than 25 years of experience, Suzanne has made her mark in the industry as a results-oriented consultant implementing innovative strategies that increase engagement, team and individual performance, and alignment of employees to the organization's goals. Equal parts proactive and practical, her goal is to help organizations address the challenges of today and anticipate those of tomorrow by developing a fresh approach to diversity and inclusion.

Her ability to quickly assess a situation and design effective responses has made Suzanne a preferred strategic partner for creating measurable, sustainable and highly successful diversity and inclusion change efforts. She meets organizations where they are; equally comfortable working with those new to the diversity and inclusion discussion as well as those already recognized as best-in-class.

Suzanne held key Diversity & Inclusion and Organization Development leadership positions in the pharmaceutical, financial and information services fields until 2008, when she started her own consulting practice. Noted for her energy, enthusiasm and creativity, Suzanne brings an indomitable spirit to every challenge and is a valuable asset to the inQUEST team.

Suzanne has been a featured speaker at the Linkage Diversity and Inclusion Conference and has led speaking engagements at several Fortune 100 companies. She holds a B.S. from SUNY Geneseo and an MBA in Organizational Development from Hofstra University.

“Consciously practicing inclusion one interaction at a time is a powerful “HOW” for creating collaborative workplaces that unleash the talent and creativity of people and move organizations to greater success.”
