

Danata Andrews

Danata is an Operations and Marketing Manager at inQUEST.

Danata is a seasoned professional with a background in operations management, marketing, event planning, fundraising, and public relations in the private and public sectors.

She joined inQUEST Consulting in January 2017 and brings a high level of enthusiasm and business acumen to her role as Operations and Marketing Manager.

Prior to inQUEST, Danata spent nearly 10 years overseeing programs and directing fundraising campaigns for a historic civil rights organization dedicated to elevating the social and economic empowerment of disadvantaged persons and people of color. She has also worked in marketing in the manufacturing and architectural industries and as an independent consultant—planning and organizing large- and small-scale events for corporations, not-for-profit organizations, and private individuals.

Danata is a yoga and meditation practitioner and is always looking for authentic experiences to grow and develop personally and professionally. She also loves dance and is fascinated by its ability to create transformative experiences and connect people—much like the work of inQUEST.

Danata graduated with a B.S. in Journalism from Illinois State University and an M.S. in Integrated Marketing Communication from Roosevelt University.

“Inevitably, we will face experiences that disconnect us. I believe that D&I can help us rediscover connective threads, learn to respect and value our differences, and honor each other in real ways.”
