

Nakia J. Green

Nakia is a Senior Partner at inQUEST.

Nakia is a Social Entrepreneur, Specialist and Facilitator in Leadership Development, Organizational Development, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, and Change Management.

As a Senior Partner at inQUEST, she brings her unique perspective and hands-on background in corporate training, sales development, and process and strategy design with US market leaders to her consulting client partnerships.

In addition to her work at inQUEST, Nakia is the founder of Culture Solutions and Culture Solutions in Action, a for profit and not for profit organization designed to decrease unemployment and underemployment amongst college graduates that identify as people of color and people with disabilities.

Nakia has a MA in Leadership from Benedictine University, a BA in Corporate Communications from Northern Illinois University, and an Executive Certificate in Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion from Georgetown University.

“DEI is about the systems we are a part of and those that participate and lead them. It’s personal! If we all show up through the lens of our authentic selves we create opportunities for others to do the same. It is this simple act that perpetuates consistent impact and drives results.”
